Arkansas Bend Park

At end of Sylvester Ford Road in Travis County. A peaceful 323-acre park with two miles of shoreline. Offers opportunities for hiking, fishing, camping, picnicking and lake access via an excellent boat ramp. Several inviting, shaded picnic and camping areas above a gently sloping, rocky waterfront.

Dink Pearson Park

FM 1431 south 11 miles to Lohmans Ford Rd. It's at the end of Lohmans Ford Rd, just past the security gates for Pointe Venture. The 3.6 acre park consists of limestone outcropping with shallow layers of loam and a gently sloping sandy loam shoreline.

Jones Brothers Park

10301 Lakeside Dr, Jonestown
<http://www.jonestown.org/parksrec>
Amenities include covered individual picnic sites, ball fields, sand volleyball court, tennis/ basketball court, walking paths and a playscape. This 32 acre park has a lengthy shoreline for those wishing to swim or spend the day fishing.

Turnback Canyon Trail Conservancy

<https://turnbackcanyon.org/>
A network of trails on the North Shore of Lake Travis. The estimated 20 mile trail system in the Lago Vista Area will connect communities with the Balcones Canyonlands National Wildlife Refuge and highlight the unique topographical features and ecosystem of the region while providing opportunities for recreation, education and community building.

Balcones Canyonlands National Wildlife Refuge

24518 Farm to Market Road 1431, Marble Falls
www.fws.gov/refuge/balcones\_canyonlands/
A beautiful wildlife area with the primary purpose being to protect the nesting habitat of the golden-cheeked warbler and black-capped vireo, two highly endangered migratory birds.
