A Guide For Local Equine Enthusiasts

Texas is horse country! The reason? Simply because Texans love their horses. Today, unless you are a working cowhand, your status as equestrian means that you ride for competition, sport, or the sheer joy of it. The vendors included in this guide offer a broad range of services from horse boarding, horse training, lessons for both beginner to advanced riders, and often trail ride and practice areas. Reach out to these companies to further discover the joy and magic of partnering with an equine companion.

WHAT THESE EQUINE SPECIALISTS OFFER

Check websites for details.

PRIVATE RIDING AREA

These businesses offer special places for you to enjoy time with a your own horse.

COMPETITION COORDINATION

These businesses offer training and coordination for participation in local shows, regional shows, and the U.S. Nationals show. These events are where hard work and dedication pays off with fun competition against other horses and riders.

HORSE TRAINING & CONDITIONING

Did you know that horses are taught to be ridden? These businesses utilize gentle teaching techniques to get the maximum potential out of each and every horse. The goal is for every horse to be happy, safe, and productive when training is complete.

HORSEMANSHIP & RIDING EDUCATION

Become a safe, stable, and confident rider. Learn how to properly handle and communicate with your horse or a rental owned by the ranch.

BOARDING STYLE: FULL

Full board will include all the necessities for the horse, plus a stall with full turn out to pasture. Full board does not require owners to visit their horses every day; instead, staff at the barn clean the stall, feed the horse, and bring him in/out of the pasture.

BOARDING STYLE: PASTURE

This boarding style is very economical. The horse will live outdoors all year round with feed, water, and a run-in shelter. If the horse needs blanketing in cold weather there may be an extra charge for the owner/manager. Horses may not get individual daily attention, but the stable staff will be keeping an eye on them. This can be a good situation for someone who rides occasionally, a horse who dislikes being stabled, or for health reasons.
