PARKS & RECREATION

experiencelhtx.com/parks

Central Park

201 Stubblefield Lane, Liberty Hill

Central Park is nestled in downtown Liberty Hill on the corner of Grange St. and Stubblefield Ln. The small pocket park was established in 2020 and serves as a natural setting for a picnic or gathering space.

City Park & Liberty Hill Swim Center

255 CR 200, Liberty Hill

City Park offers four soccer fields, a football field and stadium, two basketball courts, pavilion, and a playscape. An 0.8 mile lighted walking trail of crushed granite and natural surface surrounds the perimeter of the park. Seasonally, the Liberty Hill Swim Center is open to the public.

Veterans Memorial Park

1001 Main Street, Liberty Hill

The heart of downtown Liberty Hill is Veterans Memorial Park which was renovated in April 2018. Greeting visitors at the entrance is The Kneeling Soldier. The sculpture, which stands over seven feet tall, was placed on November 12, 2018, and created by artist Bob Ragan.

Five monument stones stand and surround a five-point star with the American flag set in the middle. The monument's stones contain the names of veterans from Liberty Hill. A wrought iron fence encompasses the park with the military emblems of the five service branches.

Wetzel Park Splash Pad

821 Main Street, Liberty Hill

The small park is home to a lovely public splashpad. The park was renamed in December 2018 after Nathan Wetzel, the town's first mayor and well-respected community leader. He taught Agriculture for many decades at Liberty Hill High School. Wetzel, who passed away in 2001, won Liberty Hill's first mayoral election in May 1999 with over 79 percent of the vote.

Lions Foundation Park

355 Main Street, Liberty Hill

A privately owned park by the Liberty Hill Development Foundation. The park houses a walking trail, playground, pavilion, and is home to the International Sculpture Park and Liberty Hill Public Library.
